One man sits in the dark, looking for his dreams...

One is an exploration of what it means to be alone.
Sometimes One is too many. Sometimes One is not enough.
One is the sum of all parts.

Tutti presents One, a premiere theatre performance, featuring Joel Hartgen, Trish Ferguson, Jane Hewitt, Alistair Brasted and Jackie Saunders. With a stellar creative team, led by director, Daisy Brown (Ruby Bruise, Gorge, Mutzenball), Wendy Todd: Designer (Skip Miller's Hit Songs, The Tragical Life of Cheeseboy), Mario Spate: Composer (Ruby Bruise, Fastest Boy in the World) and Juha Vanhakartano: Lighting Designer, One is sure to provoke and surprise audiences.

Artistic Director of Tutti, Pat Rix says, "One has been developed over several years and is a quirky and quizzical culmination of each performer's cost benefit analysis of living alone. We are absolutely thrilled to be sharing One with an audience at last.

Audiences familiar with Tutti's large scale operatic and music-theatre events can expect an original work created by five young adults and Daisy Brown that is small-scale, intimate theatre.

One is the first Tutti show which will be suitable as a touring production, it is transferrable for any space, features a small cast and would be ideal in a festival environment. We are really excited to be premiering the show at the Queen's Theatre."

A leading multi arts organization, Tutti is a Key Producer with the Australia Council for the Arts and in 2008 won top honors in the Australian Music in Communities Awards for bringing disadvantaged people together through music. From the very beginning Tutti has pursued a national agenda and dared to dream that one day universal access to rich artistic experiences for disabled and disadvantaged people will be the norm rather than the exception.
