TUTTI JOINS FORCES WITH URBAN MYTH

If you have fallen in love with Tutti and its exciting range of unique performances, you will be blown away by the latest joint venture with Urban Myth Theatre of Youth.

As part of the 16th World Congress and Performing Arts Festival for Young People (ASSITEJ), Urban Myth Theatre of Youth (featuring Tutti Artists and the Tutti Choir) are proud to present 'CURFEW' – an epic production looking at the issues surrounding youth curfews in Australia.

With over 150 in the cast, Urban Myth is working collaboratively with young people and arts professionals from many of South Australia's youth arts agencies.

Now a key producer with the Australia Council and one of Australia's leading community arts organisations, Tutti has staged sell-out concerts and original musical theatre works both in Australia and overseas. Its performances have featured in both the Adelaide Festival of Arts and the latest Fringe Festival.

"Tutti is a pioneer in providing a career in the performing and visual arts for people with a disability through Tutti Arts, a day options program run in partnership with Minda Inc." said Pat Rix, Artistic Director for Tutti.

BREAKING NEWS!! TUTTI has been named as the only South Australian among finalists selected from 225 national entries received in the inaugural Play for Life 'Music in Communities Awards'.
